Ba00i 0S ermoiu Then first uplifted in its place, and hung With its first purple grapes, since then has gro TIU ntil its green leaves gladden half the world. And from its countless clusters rivers flow For healing of the nations and its boughs Innumerable stretch through all the earth. Ever increasing, ever each entwined With each, all living from the Central Heart And you and I, my brethren, live and grow, Branches of that immortal human Stem. Let us consider now this life of the Vine, Whereof we are partakers: we shall see I ts way is not of pleasure nor of ease. It groweth not like the wild trailing weeds Whither it willeth, flowering here and there O rlifting up proud blossoms to the sun, Kissed by the butterflies, and glad for life, And glorious in their beautiful array ;O rrunning into lovely labyrinths Of many forms and many fantasies, Rejoicing in its own luxuriant life. The flower of the Vine is but a little thing, The least part of its life ;you scarce could tell It ever had a flower ;the fruit begins Almost before the flower has had its day.
