Book The Inkermen

You, of all people, should understand the needy caress of the BOOK collector chancing upon a rare volume at a church fete, boot sale, or in the dingy backrooms of an antiquarian bookseller. Remember those treasured editions gathering dust on your shelves-they took months to discover; endless internet searches, telephone calls, letters unanswered, offers scorned and deals unfulfilled. And now the BOOKs-old friends!-are piling up around you; stacked on the stairs, leaning precariously against any available wall space, safely stored in wooden attic crates-but they are yours, every inch of their 'mint' covers, and every last letter of their splendid type!
