Is Homosexuality a Sin?: A Biblical Answer Teresa M. Shafer

The persecution and hatred of homosexuals is based on the premise that God considers it a sin and therefore hates homosexuality. Many people anchor themselves with this knowledge. They believe that God wants homosexuals to be rooted out and isolated. Some people believe that God actually wants homosexuals to be stoned to death. They use a few verses of the bible to justify their actions and their blind hatred. But, what if the assumed understanding of these verses is and always has been in error? What if God doesn't hate homosexuals? Would you, or could you accept the truth if you learned that these were the facts? Here is your chance to examine those verses. Take them apart word by word and understand them as they have not been understood for hundreds of years. But be warned, Teresa is not going to just give you an answer. To truly learn a thing, you must work for it. So if you are ready and willing, pour yourself a cup of coffee, get comfortable and crack open the most intriguing and important book that you have read in a very long time. Don't be surprised if it changes how you perceive the world.
