More Than I Could Ever Know: How I Survived Caregiving Ms Dale L. Baker

Your lover and best friend is dying. You will be taking care of him until the end. You dread the day, fast approaching, when illness will reduce him to a little boy and then a baby. How do you cope? This tenderly-written memoir tells how one woman survived the emotional demands of long-term caregiving. The winner of two national literary awards, More Than I Could Ever Know: How I Survived Caregiving makes us ponder the boundaries of intimacy and our responsibility to those preparing to depart from this world. Beneath it all glow the embers of a decades-long love story.
