Seeing Red Matthew Klatzke

Grayson's life was not going as he planned. He was trapped in a job that he hated, his only friend was a jerk, and he hadn't had a girlfriend in over a year. He began slipping into a deep depression until Scarlett came to his rescue. She was beautiful, fun, and caring. The only problem was that she only existed in his dreams. Literally. Together, they went on incredible adventures, saw and did amazing things, and fell in love. Then Grayson meets a girl in the waking world and falls in love with her, making Scarlett jealous. Soon, Grayson realizes that he didn't have as much control over his dreams as he thought when the dreams become nightmares.
