In 1977, Marvel Comics published a magazine-format full-color comic book, titled, A Marvel Comics Super Special!: Kiss presenting the band Kiss as superheroes. It was the first in the Marvel Comics Super Special series which featured other well known musicians such as the Beatles. Blood from each band member was drawn by a registered nurse, witnessed by a notary public, and poured into the vats of red ink used for printing the comic at Marvel's Borden Ink plant in Depew, New York.[5] Marvel also published a second Kiss comic magazine, issue #5 in the Super Special series, in 1978, with much less fanfare.
