Strategies for Prosecuting Internet Pornography Cases is an authoritative, insider's perspective on the key methods for investigating Internet crime cases involving pornographic material and bringing these cases to court. Featuring two of the nation's leading Internet crime prosecution experts, this book guides the reader through the process of prosecuting an Internet pornography case, from uncovering technological evidence of possession of child pornography on a computer to effectively presenting this evidence in court. Breaking down the most commonly used defense strategies in these cases, the authors offer up their best practices on receiving training on Internet pornography investigation procedures and translating that knowledge to the courtroom in a trial, including understanding how computer data is stored and explaining these complex systems effectively to a jury. These experts also share their advice on coping with the emotional toll associated with these cases. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this sensitive area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. Rachel Kathleen Gernat, Assistant District Attorney, State of Alaska, Palmer District Attorney's Office - "Avoiding the Pitfalls of Prosecuting Internet Crimes Against Children" 2. Thomas A. Sadaka, Attorney at Law, Seiden, Alder, Matthewman & Bloch PA - "Task Force Prosecution of Internet Pornography" Appendices Include: Appendix A: Second Notice of Intent to Rely on Prior Bad Acts Under 404(b)(1) Appendix B: Sample Questions for Law Enforcement in a Peer-to-Peer Case Appendix C: Related Alaska Statutes Appendix D: Application for Search Warrant
