The Vomit Factory: (Life is Fake: Death is Good) Alexander T. Newport

Good books carefully chosen become friends we visit many times throughout the course of our lives, and you will find this to be true with The Vomit Factory.

Written by the late-blooming, Generation X philosopher/writer (and stoner), Alexander T. Newport, this is a personality-explosion in the form of rants, conversations, dream accounts, poetry, lists, and stories. It is both unabashed and relentless in its display of psychological nudity (a quality never seen before in a philosophy book) and contains copious quantities of rage, humor, and very quotable quotes.

Having been a longtime fan of classic rock, stinky buds, Charles Bukowski, R. Crumb, Howard Stern, Phil Hendrie, Sam Kinison, Bill Hicks, Kurt Vonnegut, Eric Bogosian, South Park, and other cool molecules of the counterculture, your Philobabblist Extraordinaire is obviously not an egghead or a boring old fart, and this is proven true by the way he espouses his politically incorrect opinions & theories with passion and pizzazz.

Alexander T. Newport is the creator & inventor of the Newportian Dreamgame Theory, and the gist of it is: This is only a dreamgame that each of us dreamed up together, and when we die, we automatically wake up at our Homestate of Awareness (RealityHeaven).
