When the Fire Fell: An Outline of My Life T B Barratt

He went to America to raise money, but he found something better. Thomas Ball Barratt was a Methodist minister from Norway. He came to America to seek funds for the city mission back home. During his stay in 1906, he read about the Azusa Street revival taking place in Los Angeles and began seeking the baptism of the Holy Spirit for himself. Upon his return, the revival soon ignited throughout Europe. Read this amazing story how everything changed when the fire fell.
