My Sochi: Travel Guide Marina Zdobnova

In this Travel Guide you will find more than 100 places to visit in Sochi, with some attractions described in detail and some described in less depth. I also includes a list of Author's 25 most favored adventures, and over 100 great restaurants and 30 hotels. This book will introduce you to dolmens, contemporaries of Egyptian pyramids, subtropical fruit and main species of palm trees that grow in Sochi. You will also learn about ancient Circassian legends and Greek myths about the land, and about brave Decembrists who lost their lives here. You will discover what a sanatorium or palace of health is, and learn about unusual forms of therapies that are common in Sochi. This city is very unique, and its Caucasus National Biosphere reserve was included on UNESCO's World Natural Heritage list in 1999. Please enjoy this book and discover more about Sochi, its rich history, abundant nature, mild climate, delicious food and most importantly, its wonderful people who, with their warm Caucasian hospitality, always welcome guests.
