Not illustrated. 1917 edition. Excerpt: ... I am ever watching with her, and rising above material sense to the spiritual. I know the enemy is foaming out its venom at Truth and Love which I reflect, but I do not believe in a power opposed to eternal Mind, therefore persecution has no terror for me. / am striving to see' man in God's image. The enemy is striving to see evil and sin in man, and evil and sin will soon be self-destroyed...., I am thinking God's thoughts to you, as you sail over the sea of human concepts. You will reach your desired haven and enjoy your.travel. Remember, you are always one with. GocL Love is ever-present, and you can never.be separated from Her-- your source and supply of life and peace, joy and power. Our beloved Leader, Mrs. Eddy, says, "There is no pleasure, no bliss, in mortal things. However dear they may seem to mortal sense, to Soul they are not permitted." Dwell then, dear, in your Soul-sense, and find your joy in contemplating the eternal real. I shall often think of you, and you will feel the truth of divine reflection. 1 See pages 159-161. God bless and keep you. No material selfhood--only the divine self, must be at last demonstrated. Love is unailing. '...', Your faithful teacher, Augusta E. Stetson. 7 West 96xn Street, New York City, April 19, 1910.: My dear Mr. L...:- -Your letter and favor are before me. I thank you for both. It is not necessary for me to inquire in regard to your character. I shall depend upon my intuition and judge by the mental impression which your letter conveys. You would better understand me if you were a Christian Scientist, or a divine metaphysician; but I am sure that you discern, in this hour, a religious, personal conflict, which is the result of two mental forces-- the so-called mortal mind, and the immortal or...
