Sex, Love and Homophobia: Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Lives (A-Z) Vanessa Baird

This accessible introductory book explores the complicated and intimate area of human sexuality from a human rights perspective. It describes how lesbian, gay, bisexual and transsexual people around the world are denied their rights, and discusses why these abuses continue into the 21st century. It shows the range of violations inflicted upon people because of their sexual orientation or gender identity. A journey through time and across cultures, this book explores one of the most controversial human rights issues of our time.
