The Good And Bad In God's Country: Love Defeats Hate Always George Winters

This book is the third one in this western series. It is centered in the town of Jasper Creek Wyoming. It's fiction but very real in what happens. A very real life tale of a town with a sheriff that truly loves all people. The first book in the series is Angel in Disguise, where an old trapper, x-stagecoach driver, and x-sheriff, gets attacked by a mother bear with cubs. He was running his traps when the bear attacked him, and an Indian woman who had been disowned by her people living in a cave nearby found him. It goes on from there as their life together takes quite a twist. The second book is Jasper Creek Lives On, and this is the town where the trapper had been a sheriff some years earlier. They wind up back in this town, and the story continues on from there. This book is number three, and it is the continuing story of this man, and the Indian woman who saved him, and many other people who come into their lives as time goes by. Many scary times, and things happen, but also many good things happen as well.
