Why do Greek priests have long hair? Why are Greek churches full of icons but short of seats? Why is Easter a different date in Greece? Whether you are a first-time visitor to Greece or a long-term resident, you will find the answers to these and a host of other questions about Greek churches in this book. With many illustrations and a generous sprinkling of humour, this is an indispensable guide for anyone wanting to see Greece beyond the beaches and bars. For this second edition, there are improved colour photographs and expanded content, including more information on feast days and Greek names, and a new section on monasteries. This budget edition is identical to the full-price version except that the photographs are black and white.
