Finding Their Way Alison Carroll

Slone Marlow had a successful tourist business after leaving the Air Force that she dearly loved. It had been all she wanted to do with her life until tragic news from home had her rushing back to her small hometown in New York. The news that she had received and was about to receive would have her crossing paths with Reed Comings. Reed Comings was a Detective on the police force. He had always loved his job until the one faited night that would change his entire world and would throw him into the path of Slone Marlow. Together the strangers would have to face many important challenges. They would have to learn how to depend on the other to get them through.
