Seasoning the Soul: Images and Reflections with a Celtic Flavor to Bless Your Year Eileen Knoff D.Min.

Seasoning the Soul invites the reader on a contemplative journey through the year, integrating the Celtic and Christian views on creation as its principal perspective. Beautiful photographs along with insightful poems, reflections and blessings by more than two dozen contributors with diverse denominational connections from across the United States offer windows into each season and suggest themes for meditation and deeper exploration. Each chapter includes questions for further consideration suited for personal reflection and group conversation. The Celtic perspective on the calendar year is gently explained throughout the book to welcome newcomers into its vision. Overall, the book "draws the reader to savor the Precious Presence saturating every moment of life!"
