Claire O'Rourke is a young writer looking forward to a glowing career in publishing. Sophia Fleming is an aging recluse whose painful past has kept her hidden away for decades. Each woman brings to the other a different view of the same God--one from unbroken faith and great expectations of what God can do, the other from a faith that wavered as a young woman but found healing through years of prayer and seeking God alone. In spite of their differences, their hearts are drawn together, even as circumstances threaten their relationship and their dreams.
