What I Know About the Alcohol Question: The Only Way to Settle It (Classic Reprint) W. S. Leake
Excerpt from What I Know About the Alcohol Question: The Only Way to Settle It

What I Know About The Alcohol Question What do I know personally about alcohol and its abuses? Everything a man can know and survive. The story has already been told and need not be repeated. If I understand the signs of the times, what the world is seeking is a hope, a promise, a solution - not an unpleasant retrospect.

People acquire first a taste for liquor which results in the disease of drunkenness, primarily to get away from some condition in their lives. Very few have a natural liking for alcohol.
