Carts's Universal Bible Atlas: Word in the World

The "Word in the World" helps readers explore the religious, historical, and literary context of each biblical book, as well as how the many books became The Good Book that has inspired believers and skeptics alike. Presenting findings from Freedman's careful reading of these sacred texts, the book offers insight into the process by which, after reflecting upon an intense experience of the Divine in their lives, peoples of long ago were inspired to write, edit, and eventually unify these cherished books.
