Urgent Care: Book Three of The Healing Touch (Volume 3) Hannah Alexander

The idyllic, isolated little town of Dogwood Springs, Missouri, is filled with more intrigue, romance, and danger than the outside world could ever suspect. Newlywed Pastor Archer Pierce has begun to question his calling when his church demands more of him than he is physically able to give. When he disappears in the midst of a violent storm, his new wife, the church members, and the citizens of the town begin a frantic race against time and the elements to find him. Lauren McCaffrey has fallen deeply in love with Dr. Grant Sheldon and his twin teenagers. When he proposes to her, however, she panics. How can she suddenly step into the shoes of Grant's beloved late wife? She'll never be able to take the place of that wonderful woman. Dr. Mitchell Caine's personal struggles have begun to affect his practice and his behavior in the ER. After a local pastor disappears during a flood, Mitchell begins to experience glimmers of memories too horrifying to accept. To complicate everything, his troubled runaway daughter returns home after years of estrangement. How can Mitchell begin to help her when he has his own dark secrets? If you enjoy Jan Karon novels and medical settings with a small-town cast of characters, The Healing Touch should be the next series on your reading list. Urgent Care is the third book in this exciting series.
