Readers walk through the seasons and discover a ghost, stuck in a tree! After several attempts to set him free, something mysterious happens. Packed with crucial anticipation and chanting repetition kids love, this book is a Halloween treat! Enjoy a creative Halloween, and celebrate Dia de los Muertos by decorating the most interesting candy skulls! This story isn't just for Halloween. It also presents an interesting and unique concept that will raise their awareness about the environment around them. Ideal for environmental Conservation & Protection, the story was inspired by noticing the bags and balloons caught in the trees of NYC. Excellent for Halloween, and all year long, as the seasons change. Take another look around Spring and Summer and see which ghosts are still stuck in the tree or take note of the ones that have disappeared! Pack your art supplies and head to NYC or any other place that has tree's and you just might notice a ghost, stuck within the leaves! Raise your child's awareness about the world around them and stimulate their imagination... Tamara Royal shares a unique collection of modern coloring books that tell a story which children and families can illustrate and expand upon. AuntyT Storytelling Inspiration for Illustration™ provides story starters, writing prompts, illustration prompts, Boook parties and Author events! After Halloween is over children will be ready for the next book in the Holiday collection, Santa and The Sad Snowman! Don't miss what's considered The Real Christmas Coloring Book!
