The Dead Saints Chronicles: A Zen Journey Through the Christian Afterlife David Solomon
Forget what you think you know about death, dying, and the Afterlife

In June 2013, as David Solomon neared the end of his research into 5000 NDE (Near-Death Experience) accounts, an MRI revealed he had terminal glioblastoma brain cancer (GBM). Given just 15 months to live, the race was on to turn his massive study into a book.

33 months later, and still with us, Solomon, a Christian Minister and scholar, completed The Dead Saints Chronicles, A Zen Journey Through the Christian Afterlife that, through the lens of his own dying experience, magnifies and brings the NDE into sharp focus revealing mysteries of the Hereafter as nothing written before has done.

Intended for readers of all backgrounds and creeds, it dispels common myths and calms common fears providing a practical guide towards inner growth and how to hear God's still small voice every day.

The Dead Saints Chronicles:

Answers questions about salvation and death that affect our Afterlife destination.

Details David's journaled personal and religious insights woven through the book as he prepares for the other side.

Resolves the apparent paradox of the Christ within and a very real historical Jesus, the Planetary Headmaster who oversees the growth of every soul regardless of belief system.

Takes a unique and vivid Zen/Dream/Dead Saint approach to Scripture interpretation that will fascinate Christians, followers of all faiths, and even skeptics.

Elaborates Earth as God's Bootcamp the great School for learning not just mundane but essential spiritual lessons.

And more... as revealed by the accounts of those myriad Dead Saints who have died, who have come back to life transformed, and can teach us through their experiences.
