The Keys to a Successful Presidency

The Keys to a Successful Presidency

A non-partisan and non-ideological strategy guide for succeeding in Washington, The Keys to a Successful Presidency outlines what procedures past presidents have had to master in order to "hit the ground running" and successfully implement an agenda. This book incorporates the reflections and recommendations of people who held high posts in past administrations and observations of political scientists and journalists who observed them. This study draws upon the best and most practical suggestions Heritage gathered from nine public programs.
