Erotic Pop is a collection of poems, drawings, and paintings. The poems are inspired by pop songs that span the past sixty years. It started with “Shagging Boys in the Street.” I was inspired by Greg Holden’s beautiful song, “Boys in the Street,” and I wanted to sensualize it, eroticize it, and bring a different social issue to the story. That was the flame to ignite the culmination of this collection. The poems are meant to be light-hearted and fun while turning you on and bringing awareness to various social issues in the gay community. You may recognize the original song a poem is based on and sing along with the new lyrics – I know I do! I decided to include some digital drawings and pictures of paintings that I thought related to a poem and to bring colour to my words. Please note: this is for a mature audience. Some drawings contain male nudity.
