While I am in a state of acute depression, to try to distract me from my terrible thoughts, I remember a story I have read a few days ago. It is the story of two girls extremely sensitive and educated, that after having quarreled with their parents decided to seek their fortune away. They, arrived in Italy, they discover a completely different world from the one in which they have lived their youth. They, not being prepared to face either the world of work, or the deceptions of men, are forced to return to their parents. All ends well ... But I continue to be angry with myself and I decided to kill myself. So I take a small rowing boat and face the open sea. Incredibly I am called by the Queen of the mermaids that leads me to live in her wonderful world. I dreamed!
