While the Watchman Wept Robert W Brennan

It all started with a text message. Meet Johnny McElroy, a twenty-something loser. He's currently seeped with guilt over his inability to maintain a lasting relationship. All he wants is another chance to make things right (at least in his own mind). After a failed Mariachi performance, Johnny is in deep trouble (of the murder variety) and must do everything in his power to set things right. Along the way he'll be guided by a former President along his own purgatory inspired road to redemption, with plenty of laughs and uncomfortable moments along the way.
