His works are set in a wide variety of historical time periods and event settings from the ancient times of the mystical past through medieval and American history up to modern times worldwide, as far afield from his home setting of the United States as France, Scotland, the Black Sea, and China. His shorter works, previously available only in e-book form, are now being brought together in print collections. This is the first of that series, including works covering the mystical beginnings of time to the Crusades, Beginning of Time, Labyrinth, The Prophecy of Noto, and The King's Men.
