Serendipitously united by a classroom dispute with a priest, Laith and Valentina enter into a lifelong relationship punctuated by their love of ideas and their unbalanced feelings for each other. Together, they explore the timeless concepts history's philosophers wrote about. But when compelled to escape from each other, they explore the world. They discover that love is too big to fit inside an idea, and that defining it means defining themselves. With This Last Thought is a philosophical exposition wrapped in a novella. In sometimes lighthearted and occasionally heady prose, Laith and Valentina encourage the reader to seek answers to life's transformative questions.
