NYPD Red 4: by James Patterson & Marshall Karp | Summary & Analysis James Patterson and Marshall Karp, continues the bestseller's series in an eminently believable New York City. Detectives Zach Jordan and Kylie MacDonald continue to investigate cases involving the wealthy elite of the city, this time calling attention to the political entanglements that abound among the wealthiest in the Big Apple. James Patterson and Marshall Karp's novel follows New York Police Department detectives Zach Jordan and Kylie MacDonald as they simultaneously investigate the death of media sensation Elena Travers and a series of robberies of New York City hospitals. Amid their investigations, both detectives attempt to negotiate their love lives; Jordan tries to make things work as he shares an apartment with Cheryl Robinson, and MacDonald tries to right her marriage to the drug-addicted Spence Harrington. Neither is entirely successful with romantic goals, but the investigations resolve themselves well enough in the end, so that justice is restored – at least for now. This Analysis fills the gap, making you understand more while enhancing your reading experience.
