In the Apple Orchard: A Pre-School Reader Mrs. Dana E. Cline

A beginning reader for your preschooler, this simple rhyming poem is designed to help your child recognize a repeating phrase as you read to them. Even before your child can read, frequent repetition will help build confidence in recognizing certain words and letters. That confidence is an important step to reading for education and recreation. In addition, the story of how a seed becomes an apple will help introduce your very young child to environmental science.
