And I All Undressed Elvira Davis

"Sonnets, a pantoum and triolets are some of the forms of poetry in this collection that tell about lost love, war and the beauty of the sunrise. Some poems are powerful with a message for the reader; others are lyrical and gentle, caressing the reader with their words. Elvira demonstrates she is able to handle different types of poetry with fl air and ease. And I all undressed has something for everyone... 'Since rearing a family of three children and retiring from teaching, I have been able to devote more time to my writing. If I live long enough, I will continue to write on the many aspects of life that I address in my poetry' — Elvira Davis Elvira Davis' poetry has received several commendation certificates from Yellow Moon publication, Australia, in 2005— 2006. She also won the 'crystal trophy' and 'Poet of Merit' at the International Poetry Convention in Las Vegas, USA, in 2006. In the same year, her poetry won second prize in the Fellowship of Australian Writers (Queensland) poetry competition."
