Flowers of Love: A Kew Colouring Book

Is your day a jumble of distractions? Does endless screen time sap your creativity? Do you wish for a little more Zen in your week? Then take a breather in a botanical world through two beautiful coloring books.

Coloring books are the perfect break from the stresses and hassle of modern life. They offer a chance to interact with fantastical artwork while at the same time aiding in relaxation, improving dexterity, and encouraging mindfulness. No longer just for kids, coloring books have become best-sellers as adults reconnect with their creativity and their childhoods.

Flowers of Love takes you through a lush garden of flowers such as sweethearts, forget-me-nots, and bleeding hearts. Sue Mason, a mathematician-turned-artist, has subtly woven in the theme of love throughout the book including a trail of hidden hearts. It features delightful, interconnected black and white drawings that will inspire artists of all stripes to let their imaginations run wild.
