Heli Hofmann's book of 260 post-impressionist paintings: Heli Hofmann, who immigrated to California, was born in Germany in 1937. Influenced by artists such as Franz Marc, August Macke, Gabriele Münter, as well as the early works of Wassily Kandinsky, she captured and enhanced the beauty of idyllic landscapes, baroque churches, picturesque villages, Spanish missions, flower fields, and sunlit beaches. Heli Hofmann also depicted her extensive travels with bold strokes and vivid colors, in new visions of rural and urban beauty blended with harmony of land and sky.
