Second Chances: Stories of Hope, Redemption, and Forgiveness William Umansky

Celebrate the resilience of the human spirit through the stories of everyday people whose ordeals allowed them to experience first-hand the healing powers of second chances. Meet Vanessa—a teenage runaway who turns to a life of prostitution but finds her way back home. Discover mothers reunited with daughters, daughters reunited with fathers, and a drug dealer who befriends a priest and finds the courage to start his life over again. Learn that forgiveness—even between a mother and the man who killed her son—is truly possible. See how one person's life can positively impact and change the pathway for another. In this powerful collection of stories, you will find hope, peace of mind, and proof that whatever the circumstances may be in your life, it is never too late for a fresh start at life.
