Amy has two best friends. Emma is her best friend and rival; Jonathon is her childhood sweetheart. But then she meets Jake, and everything changes. When Amy finds an ancient book containing a gypsy curse in an old steamer trunk in the attic, along with her grandmother's wedding dress, she shrugs it off until strange things begin to happen that make her question everything. Amy is challenged to prove she doesn't believe in all that stuff, so she wears the wedding dress to a masquerade ball, and as the night wears on, unexplained events begin to make a believer out of her.
