The Curious Case of the Missing Moolah (A Stanton Brothers thriller) Martin Stanley

Eric Stanton has a big problem. Three armed robbers have stolen ten grand of his boss' money from him. So far, so bad. However, his boss isn't the kind of man who will take that loss lying down. If Eric can't get the money back, then it becomes his debt. And his boss isn't a man he wants to owe money to, especially when he can't afford to pay. So he's left with one option: get the money back before anybody notices it's gone! But when he realises that this is a setup and that it's part of a bigger picture, he does the one thing he can think of to even up the score – he brings in his brother, Derek. Now, Derek might not be the smartest man on the planet, or the most reliable, but he's six-feet-four, strong as an ox and handy with his fists. So the brothers decide to play detective and take a trip around the seamier parts of Teesside in search of the money – upsetting the locals, breaking bones and trading quips, right up until the brutal finale. Foul-mouthed, fast-moving and bone-crunchingly violent – this is one Case that's bound to make you Curious! WARNING: CONTAINS VERY STRONG LANGUAGE AND VIOLENCE THROUGHOUT. NOT FOR THE EASILY OFFENDED OR THOSE OF A SENSITIVE DISPOSITION.
