This book is dedicated to those who were unsuccessful in passing the Bar exam. But, it is meant for anyone who has the desire to become a licensed attorney. This book will help you connect the dots. The legal outlines in this book contains essential rules of law often tested in the essay portion of the exam. It provides a guideline on how to properly format essay answers - to impress the graders. It gives valuable "Notes" on how to understand and apply the law. This book was written after examining hundreds of actual Bar Exam essay questions and answers. This book will also give helpful tips for the MBE. And will give a brief discussion on food to help replenish the brain and body. You have to change your approach for this exam. Changing your approach will lead you to success. If what you have done in the past did not work, try this book. Be open to new ideas. Your approach to this exam should be geared towards maximizing your chance of passing - instead of wasting time figuring out how to bring everything together. Don't believe the saying, "the more you fail the exam, the harder it is to pass." This is false. It plays on the fear factor that many people want you to believe. If you did not pass the Bar Exam, the world is not over. Change your focus, approach, and perspective. This book is your roadmap to passing the Bar Exam.
