Do you know the difference between Medicare-covered nursing home care and that which is covered by Medicaid? Do you confuse SsdI with Ssi? Might you or someone you love need both? Are you clear about the differences between a living will and a living trust? Elder Care: The Road to Growing Old Is Not Paved is a first-of-its kind reference manual covering the legal, financial, housing and health care considerations of aging boomers themselves as well as issues confronting them as caregivers. It is also a valuable training tool for professional elder care newcomers. From estate planning to Medicaid planning, from Social Security to Medicare, from reverse mortgages to end-of-life care, this book sets forth essential information about programs and issues affecting quality of life in later years. It is written in user-friendly, ordinary English.
